A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Beckwith, South Windham, when their daughter, Alice May, was united in marriage with Robert Thomas McClure of Norwich. The brida, escorted by her father, entered the room as the wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. Robert H. Breckenridge. The bridal party stood under an arch beautifully decorated with ferns and white daisles, where Rev. F. Johns Bohanan, pastor of St. Andrew's church, Greeneville, performed the ceremony, the double ring service being used.

The bride was given away by her father, and was charmingly gowned in white silk with pearl trimmings, and carried white sweet peas. She had as her bridesmaid Miss Ruth M. Breckenridgs of Norwich, who was gowned in light blue silk and carried white roses. Mr. McClure had as his best man Ernest P. Beckwith, a brother of the TAFTVILLE St. Mary's School Team Won from Sacred Heart, 2 to 0-Notes.

Thursday afternoon on the Providence street diamond the champion St. Mary's school team of Greeneville defeated the Sacred Heart school in a fast and very interesting game by the score of 2 to 0. The game was played in very fast time—just one hour being taken for the nine innings. Fuller was in the box for St. Mary's and came very near making a record for a grammar school pitchen, as he only allowed the Taitville boys one hit. He received excellent support. The Sacred Heart boys had Murphy on the slab, and he pitched good ball, allowing St. Mary's only four hits. The work of the two pitchers, together with the short time in which the game was played, were in which the game was played, were the features of the afternoon.

CLOSE OF THE CONVENTION. Assessment Levied for a Residence for the Bishop.

The annual State Episcopal convention has closed its session at Water-bury. Wednesday morning's business, following a communion service at 7.30. consisted mainly of the reading of minor committee reports, the adoption of resolutions of couriesy, and similar routine matters. The convention ad-journed at 12.30. The most important business of the dations of the finance committee, mos the delegates. An assessment of one per cent, on all current expenses was levied on each parish, to add to the fund for building a residence for the bishop, and $7,590 was appropriated to provide new assistants for him. The Sunday school commissior was given an appropriation of $1,000 with which to pay the salary of a new secretary, or general diocesean Sunday school superintendent.

The following standing committee was re-elected: The Rev. Storrs O. Seymour, D. D., the Rev. Samuel Hart, D. D., the Rev. Stewart Means, D. D., the delegates. An assessment of one
